Anglican Parish of the Parks
St Silas & St Anselm, Albert Park

11 October 2026
Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

9:30am Sung Eucharist

Wominjeka – Welcome

A warm welcome to our worship today, especially if you are here for the first time or visiting from elsewhere. Please do stay to share refreshments at the end of the service. This booklet contains the full order of service: you are invited to join in the parts printed in bold type.

Today's service will be livestreamed at: http://video.parishoftheparks.com.au

We acknowledge and pay our respects to the Boonwurrung people, the original custodians of this land, and acknowledge the people and elders of the Eastern Kulin nation who have traditional connections with, and responsibility for, the land on which we meet.

WELCOME

to our worship today at the Parish of the Parks

This booklet contains the full order of service. You are invited to join in saying together the words printed in bold type, and to stand where indicated as you are able. Sometimes you may simply need to sit and be carried by the prayers of others – that too is part of our life as the church.

Children are always welcome to be fully part of our service. At the back on the left hand side of the church there is a children's activity area, but please also feel most welcome to sit near the front where children can more easily see what is happening. It's fine if they make a bit of noise, or if they want to roam around and explore this new place.

There is a bathroom and change table at the bottom of the stairs near the front door (opposite the lift).

When we come to share Holy Communion, everyone is welcome. Children who have been baptised are welcome to share the communion bread (and wine) at their parents' discretion. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, or if you need a gluten free wafer, please let the priest know when you come forward.

If you have any particular questions, needs, concerns, or prayer requests, you are welcome to speak with Rev'd Chris after the service or to be in touch using the contact details on the back page.

We would love to keep in touch with you! Each week the parish sends an email update looking ahead to the next Sunday. You are welcome to sign up on our website at www.parishoftheparks.com.au/subscribe

Prelude Ein feste Burg ist unser Gott (Johann Walther)

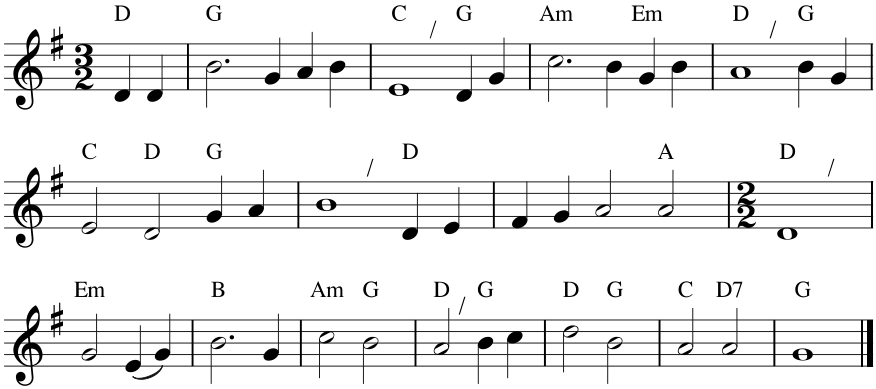
Gathering in God's Name

A bell is rung as a signal for all to stand

Hymn

TiS 137



1. For the beauty of the earth,
   for the beauty of the skies,
   for the love which from our birth
   over and around us lies,

   Christ, our God, to you we raise
   this our sacrifice of praise.

2. For the beauty of each hour of the day and of the night,
   hill and vale, and tree and flower,
   sun and moon and stars of light,

3. For the joy of ear and eye,
   for the heart and mind's delight,
   for the mystic harmony
   linking sense to sound and sight,

4. For the joy of human love,
   brother, sister, parent, child,
   friends on earth and friends above,
   for all gentle thoughts and mild,

5. For each perfect gift divine to our race so freely given,
   graces all of your design,
   flowers of earth and buds of heaven,

6. For the church that evermore,
   lifting holy hands above,
   offers up on every shore
   the pure sacrifice of love,

Presider Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
All Blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Let us pray.
All Almighty God,
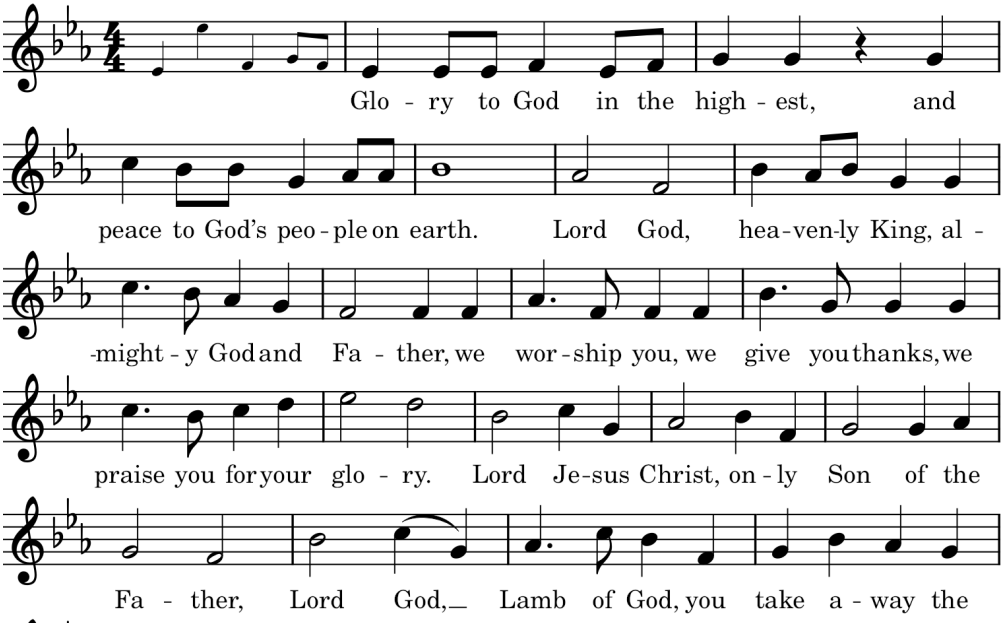
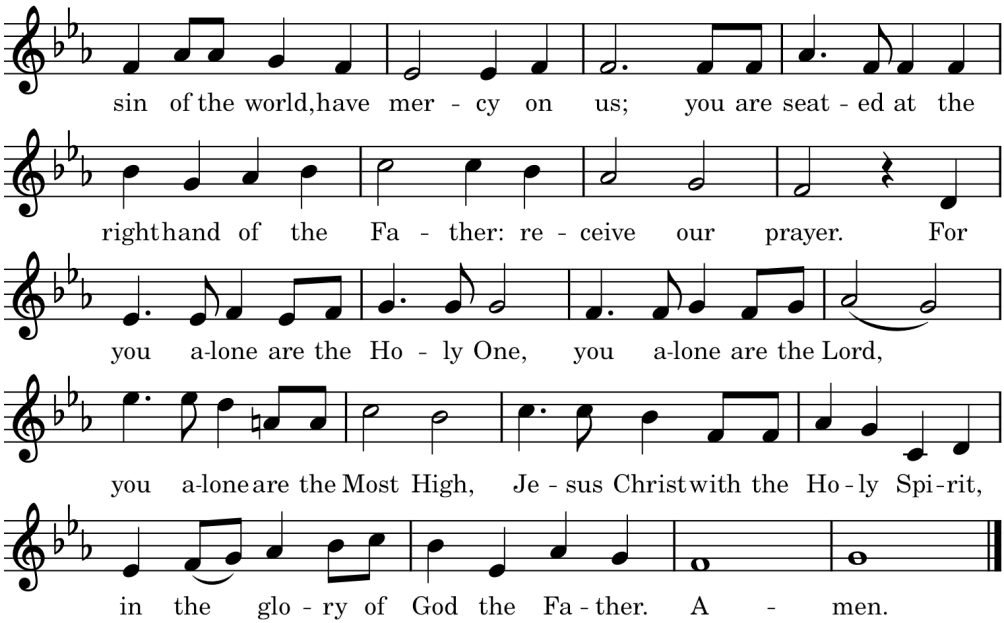
to whom all hearts are open, all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit,
that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name,
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria





Prayer of the Day

Presider Let us pray.

Saving and healing God,
you have promised
that those who have died with Christ shall live with him:
grant us grace to be continually thankful
for all you have done for us,
and in that thankfulness
to be eager to serve and live for others,
so that we and all your children may rejoice in your salvation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Opening the Scriptures

First Reading

A reading from the book Exodus.

When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron and said to him, 'Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' 2 Aaron said to them, 'Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.' 3 So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. 4 He took the gold from them, formed it in a mould, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!' 5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said,
'Tomorrow shall be a festival to the Lord.' 6 They rose early the next day, and offered burnt-offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel.

7 The Lord said to Moses, 'Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; 8 they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshipped it and sacrificed to it, and said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!"' 9 The Lord said to Moses, 'I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. 10 Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.'

11 But Moses implored the Lord his God, and said, 'O Lord, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? 12 Why should the Egyptians say,
"It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth"? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. 13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, "I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it for ever."' 14 And the Lord changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

Psalm

106.1-6, 20-24

The response is sung first by the cantor and then by the congregation.
Thereafter it is sung by the congregation as indicated.

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is gracious,
for his faithfulness endures for ever.
Who can express the mighty acts of the Lord
or show forth all his praise?
Blessed are those who observe what is right and always do what is just. Response

Remember me, O Lord, in the favour you bear for your people;
visit me in the day of your salvation;
That I may see the prosperity of your chosen
and rejoice in the gladness of your people,
and exult with your inheritance. Response

We have sinned like our forebears;
we have done wrong and dealt wickedly.
In Egypt they did not consider your wonders,
nor remember the abundance of your faithful love;
They made a calf at Horeb
and worshipped the molten image; Response

They they exchanged their glory
for the image of an ox that feeds on hay.
They forgot God their saviour,
who had done such great things in Egypt,
wonderful deeds in the land of Ham
and fearful things in the Red Sea. Response

So he would have destroyed them,
had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach,
to turn away his wrath from consuming them.
Then they scorned the Promised Land
and would not believe his word. Response

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians

4 [1] Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

[2] I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. [3] Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

[4] Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. [5] Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. [6] Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. [7] And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

[8] Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. [9] Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

(4.1-9; NRSVA)

Reader Hear the word of the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

1. The great love of God
   is revealed in the Son,
   who came to this earth
   to redeem every one.

2. That love, like a stream flowing clear to the sea,
   makes clean every heart
   that from sin would be free.

3. It binds the whole world,
   every barrier it breaks,
   the hills it lays low,
   and the mountains it shakes.

4. It's yours, it is ours,
   O how lavishly giv'n!
   the pearl of great price,
   and the treasure of heav'n.

The Gospel

The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: 2 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. 3 He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. 4 Again he sent other slaves, saying, "Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet." 5 But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, 6 while the rest seized his slaves, maltreated them, and killed them. 7 The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. 8 Then he said to his slaves, "The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. 9 Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet." 10 Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

11 'But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, 12 and he said to him, "Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?" And he was speechless. 13 Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." 14 For many are called, but few are chosen.'

(22.1-14; NRSVA)

For the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sermon

The Creed

Server Let us affirm as ours the faith of the Church:

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary
and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayer and Penitence

The Prayers of the People

Presider Let us pray for all people,
and for the church throughout the world.

After each petition: Hear our prayer.

The prayers conclude:
Presider Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.
All Grant that what we have asked in faith
we may by your grace receive
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Server 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' Jesus said: 'This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself.'

Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith,
confident in God's forgiveness.

All Merciful God,
our maker and our judge,
we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
and in what we have failed to do:
we have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;
we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.
Father, forgive us.
Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Presider Almighty God,
who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith:
pardon you and set you free from all your sins,
strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Celebrating at the Lord's table

The Greeting of Peace

Presider We are the body of Christ.
All His Spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
All And also with you.

We share the peace in a way you are comfortable with.
This may include giving a sign from afar, shaking hands,
or similar acknowledgement.

At the conclusion of the following hymn our gifts are brought forward.
These contributions to the ministry of the parish can be made:

- in the collection plate near the back of the church
- in the basket near the back of the church, for food items to be distributed through the Sunday Suppers program
- by online donation (please see page 23 for details)

Thank you for all these gifts to sustain the life and ministry of our parish.

1. Robe yourself, my soul, in gladness, leave sin's gloomy den of sadness,
come where God in light is waiting,
come, begin the celebrating!
For the Lord brings me salvation,
issues me his invitation;
God most holy comes to win me,
comes from heaven to live within me.

4. All our thinking, as we ponder, cannot comprehend this wonder,
that this living bread is boundless though the people fed are countless,
and that Christ his blood is giving
with the wine we are receiving.
What a myst'ry, of God's planning,
past all human understanding!

5. Jesus, sun of life, my splendour,
Jesus, joy, and friend most tender,
Jesus, source of all my being,
all my thoughts and actions seeing:
at your feet I fall before you;
make me worthy to enjoy you
in this feast that you have given as my food, the food from heaven.

6. Jesus, bread of life, I pray you,
let me cheerfully obey you,
and accept your invitation
for my good, not condemnation.
Let me eat this supper, knowing what great love, Lord, you are showing.
Now on earth these gifts you give me,
as your guest in heaven receive me.

Prayer over the gifts

Presider Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation
through your goodness we have these gifts to share.
Accept and use our offerings for your glory
and for the service of your kingdom.

All Blessed be God for ever.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give our thanks and praise.

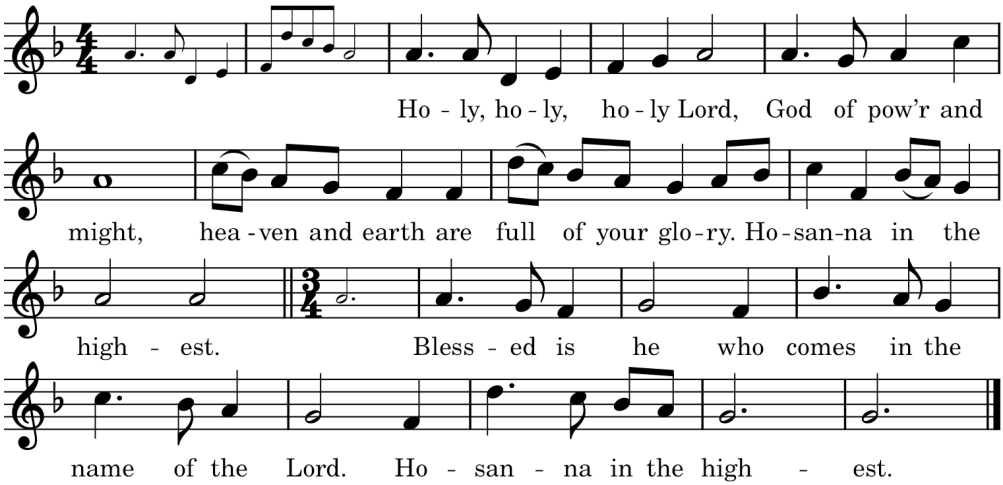
The presider prays on behalf of all, praising God for God's mighty acts. All respond:



The Last Supper is recalled, including Jesus' command to continue sharing bread and wine: in memory of him, and proclaiming his death and resurrection. All respond:

The prayer calls on God's blessing and looks to the fulfilling of all things within the goodness of God, and concludes:

The Lord's Prayer

Presider As God's children, and heirs with Christ
we cry in the Spirit, 'Abba', Father:

All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and the Communion

The priest breaks the bread and says

As this broken bread was once many grains,
which have been gathered together and made one bread:

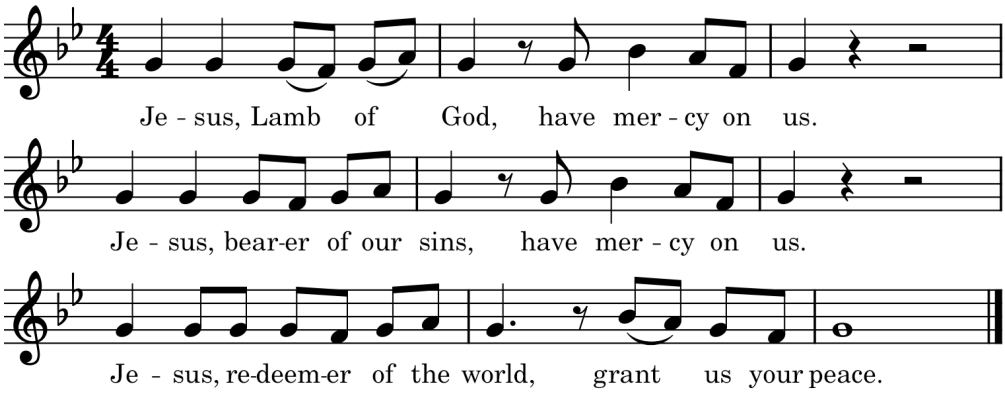
All so may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

All sing



The gifts of God, for the people of God.
Draw near with faith,
to feed on Christ in your hearts with thanksgiving.

Everyone is welcome to come forward and share communion.
The wine is received either from a common cup (on the left side of the altar steps), or by the priest dipping the bread into the wine (on the right side).
Please tell the priest if you require a gluten free wafer,
or if you would prefer to receive a blessing.

Communion music A Gaelic Blessing (John Rutter)

Going into the world

Post-communion prayer

Presider Gracious God,
we thank you that in this sacrament
you assure us of your goodness and love.
Accept our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving
and help us to grow in love and obedience that we may serve you in the world and finally be brought to that table
where all your saints feast with you for ever.

All Most loving God,
you send us into the world you love.
Give us grace to go thankfully and with courage
in the power of your Spirit.

Notices

Hymn

TiS 531

1. Sent forth by God's blessing, our true faith confessing, the people of God from his table take leave.
The supper is ended: may now be extended
the fruits of his service in all who believe.
The seed of his teaching, our hungry souls reaching,
shall blossom in action for all humankind.
His grace shall incite us, his love shall unite us
to work for his kingdom, his purpose to find.

2. With praise and thanksgiving to God ever-living the tasks of our everyday life we will face,
our faith ever sharing, in love ever caring,
embracing as neighbours all those of each race.
One feast that has fed us, one light that has led us,
unite us as one in his life that we share.
Then may all the living, with praise and thanksgiving,
give honour to Christ and his name that we bear.

From your Vicar...

Dear friends,

A big thank you to everyone who was part of last week's centenary celebration – it was a significant day for our parish! Many of our guests spoke expressed appreciation for the hospitality of the parish and for our worship together.

It was lovely to be able to continue the celebration into the afternoon, with our Sunday Suppers members delighted to be included in the celebratory cake and the many good things remaining from morning tea.

We now turn our attention to the coming weeks and months: as you can see opposite, there are a number of things coming up for us to note.

There are two particular Sunday evening services coming up, each of which in its own way is a great opportunity to invite others to join us. Next week, Sunday 18th October, we have Choral Evensong with members of other parishes from our deanery, and the opportunity to meet and hear from our new bishop, the Rt Rev'd Megan Curlis Gibson. And a fortnight after that, we have our All Souls' service: a gentle, reflective service which gives a chance to remember before God our loved ones who have died. Is there someone that you might invite to one of these services?

Looking further ahead, it is time to be thinking about our Annual Parish Meeting and the governance of the parish in the coming year. One very particular need is for someone to take on the role of treasurer, as Sharon Russell is required to step down after six years of service. The treasurer oversees the management of the parish finances, while our very capable bookkeeper looks after the week-to-week account keeping. Of course we also welcome new people willing to serve on parish council and as churchwardens. Filling all these roles is an important part of our sustainability as a parish, so please do give some prayerful consideration to these needs and opportunities. You are welcome to talk to one of the wardens or to me if you would like to know more.

With my grateful prayers for our life together,
Chris

Sunday Suppers fundraiser

On Saturday 24th October there will be a fundraising mini-fair in front of the church, raising money for our Sunday Suppers meal program. There will be live music from The Ramblers jazz group, food, coffee, children's activities and more. This is an important event for our parish and plenty of work has already been put into planning - please do support it as much as you are able:

- Come on the day, and invite others to come too (flyers available at the back)
- Assist with baking for the cake stall, and/or by giving some time on a stall (see weekly email for link to sign up)

Annual Parish Meeting

Parish Council has set the Annual Parish Meeting for 11am on Sunday 22nd November. It's therefore time to think about some practical preparations...

- Parish Electoral Roll: In preparation for the Annual Meeting, we are required to revise and update the electoral roll. If you are not currently on the roll and wish to be able to vote at the annual meeting, please complete a form (at the back of the church) or speak to Rev'd Chris for further details.
- Reports for Annual Meeting: Please send all reports to the parish office (office@parishoftheparks.org.au) by Monday 2 November.
- Nomination forms for election as Churchwardens, Parish Councillors and Parish Nominators are available at the back of the church. Please give prayerful consideration to nominations for these important roles.

Keeping in touch

- Each week the parish sends an email update looking ahead to the next Sunday. If you are not already receiving these emails, you are welcome to sign up on our website at www.parishoftheparks.com.au/subscribe
- In this season is a regular newsletter from Archbishop Ric Thorpe, with stories, reflections, prayers and encouragement from across the Diocese of Melbourne. Sign up at bit.ly/inthisseasonnewsletter
